Subject: Request for Implementation of 30 Hours' Add-on Course on Spoken Sanskrit

Respected Sir,

I hope this letter finds you in good health. This year too I am writing to express my earnest request for the introduction of a 30 Hours' Add-on Course on Spoken Sanskrit at our esteemed institution like previous years. Given permission, the course may continue from 13/03/2023 to 22/03/2023.

Sanskrit, as a classical language, holds immense cultural and historical significance. Introducing a Spoken Sanskrit course can contribute significantly to the linguistic diversity and cultural enrichment of our academic environment. This course aims to provide students with the opportunity to learn and speak Sanskrit fluently, fostering a deeper connection with our heritage.

I kindly request you to consider this proposal and initiate the necessary steps for the implementation of the 30 Hours' Add-on Course on Spoken Sanskrit. I am confident that such an initiative will receive positive feedback and participation from the students.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Santigopal Das

Objectives:

The primary objectives of the 30 Hours Spoken Sanskrit Add-on Course were to promote linguistic diversity, enrich cultural understanding, and foster a deeper connection with our heritage. The course aimed to provide participants with practical language skills and insights into the cultural significance of Sanskrit.

Curriculum:

1. Introduction to Sanskrit (4 hours): Basics of Sanskrit phonetics and script.
2. Building Vocabulary (6 hours): Common phrases and daily conversational vocabulary.
3. Grammatical Foundations (8 hours): Understanding sentence structure and essential grammar rules.
4. Conversational Practice (8 hours): Interactive sessions with practical application and role-playing exercises.
5. Cultural Significance (2 hours): Exploring the historical and cultural relevance of Sanskrit.
6. Evaluation: Assessing students (2 hours)

Routine:

The course followed a well-structured routine with daily sessions lasting approximately 3 hours, ensuring a comprehensive coverage of the curriculum within the 10-day timeframe. The sessions included a mix of lectures, group discussions, and practical exercises.

Outcome:

1. Improved Linguistic Skills: Participants demonstrated enhanced proficiency in spoken Sanskrit.
2. Cultural Enrichment: Participants gained a deeper understanding of the cultural and historical significance of Sanskrit.
3. Holistic Development: The course contributed to the overall personal and cultural development of the participants.

Challenges:

The main challenge encountered was the limited timeframe for an in-depth exploration of certain aspects of Sanskrit grammar and vocabulary. Additionally, some participants found it challenging to balance the course schedule with their regular academic commitments.

Conclusion:

Despite the challenges, the 30 Hours Spoken Sanskrit Add-on Course was successful in achieving its primary objectives. The positive feedback from participants emphasizes the value of such courses in providing a well-rounded education. To address challenges, future iterations could consider extending the course duration or incorporating flexible.
